Restaurants

From familiar classics to exotic surprises. Avani Pemba Beach Hotel serves it all. The freshest flavours are served. Only tempting ways to sip, snack, wine and dine. All in stylish settings with great views. You will want to come back for more.

Quirimbas

A Mozambican flair and fresh local seafood.

Start the day with an energising breakfast. Return in the evening for Mozambique's specialties. Enjoy seafood straight from the sea, or pick popular classics from all over the world. Whatever you decide, your taste buds will be grateful.

Clube Naval

Worldly classics served by the sea.

Delight in mouth watering breakfasts, dinners and lunches at Clube Naval. A casual yet elegant bar and restaurant a short stroll from the hotel on the beach. Modern classics. A blend of South East African recipes and Mediterranean favourites. Tuck into hearty breakfasts, light salads and soups. Pasta and pizza. Sandwiches and burgers. Or eat local specialties, with curries and seafood. Fancy a dinner al fresco? Then choose from the beach bistro menu available in the evening.

The Niassa Bar

Light bites in an African setting.

Hang out in The Niassa Bar. Satisfy your cravings. Pick from our menu of honest bites and exotic tastes of Africa. The spot to wind down with friends before the big day. Refresh with a sundowner cocktail over the Indian Ocean. We know you'll love it.

How to get here

By Air:

Guests can arrive at Avani Pemba Beach Hotel via Pemba in Northern Mozambique. Pemba can be accessed from South Africa with flights from Johannesburg on Airlink and LAM, from Kenya with flights from Nairobi via Dar es Salaam, from Tanzania with direct flights from Dar es Salaam and from other centres in Mozambique including Maputo, Beira and Nampula.

Visa Information

Visas are available on arrival (currently USD 50 but note this is subject to frequent change). US Dollars, South African Rands and Mozambican Meticals are accepted in Mozambique. Please have cash for your visa available on arrival.

Where possible please obtain your visa in advance to speed your arrival through the airport. Please note that multiple-entry visas are not available on arrival in Mozambique, so if you plan to visit more than one location, you will need to apply for your visa in advance.

SADC passport holders do not require a visa for leisure travel to Mozambique. Non-SADC passport-holders can obtain visas on arrival at Pemba airport.

Legalities:

As per Mozambican legislation, only Mozambican citizens can legally marry in Mozambique. Therefore we recommend a civil ceremony in your country of residency before your arrival. All wedding ceremonies will be blessing ceremonies conducted by one local member.
